

Exercise 3.143. [15] Find an example of $f, g : \mathbb{N} \rightarrow \mathbb{N}$ such that $f \circ g \equiv g \circ f$, but neither f nor g are bijective.