

Exercises

18.50 [2BW] Note: Proposition 5.11.2 notes [3].

A set $E \subseteq X$ is disconnected if and only there exists a continuous function $f : E \rightarrow \mathbb{R}$ that assumes exactly two values, for example $f(E) = \{0, 1\}$.